

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Pleasant Dinner Party Tendered S. G. Wilder Last Evening.

Unique Cards in Water Colors Furnished Guests—Pleasant Reception Follows Collation—Guests.

The birthday of Samuel G. Wilder was not forgotten, and last evening a most pleasant dinner was tendered the young man by his mother at the family residence, Judd street, in honor of the event.

Seated around the table with Mr. Wilder were George C. Potter, Walter Dillingham, G. H. W. Norton, Harry Whitney, D. Howard Hitchcock, F. W. Thrum, Paul F. De La Vergne, Charles Hyde, Robt. Atkinson, J. O. Carter, Jr., Charles Hyde, Armstrong Smith and Wm. H. Coney.

Artistic hands had transformed the table into a perfect bower of beauty. Red carnations strewn here and there were set off by a long streamer of navy blue ribbons wound around in graceful curves. The candelabras, with red candles and shades of the same color, cast a soft glow over the whole.

The surprise of the evening was found in the dinner cards that were laid at the places of the various guests. Each one was startled by an apparition of himself cleverly placed in water colors upon a card by the hand of D. Howard Hitchcock. The favorite occupations of some and the striking attitudes of others furnished food for much amusement, and, in some cases, gave hints for good resolutions.

After dinner the boys repaired to the drawing room, where they were pleased to find Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Wight, Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, Mr. and Mrs. von Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Ballou, Mrs. Gunn, the Misses Hartwell (2), Miss Wilder and Miss Estelle.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the rendition of favorite songs, English and Hawaiian, and in the enjoyment of pleasant converse.

Mr. Wilder was the recipient of the hearty congratulations and good wishes of a large number of friends.

KLEMMER PLEAD GUILTY.

Attorney-General Smith Asked for Suspension of Sentence.

A large number of people gathered in the police court yesterday morning to hear proceedings in the case of the Government vs. Carl Klemme for unlawfully entering without the consent of the proper authorities after having left the country to escape trial.

At the request of the prosecution and non-objection of the defense, Judge Wilcox took the place of Judge De La Vergne, disqualified, having assisted in the prosecution when the case was up before.

The Attorney-General read the charge, to which Klemme plead guilty. Charles Creighton, counsel for the defendant, said, in pleading guilty, that his client wished it stated he had come into the country again on account of the illness of his wife. It had been found necessary to have her taken to another climate.

The Attorney-General, for the prosecution, asked that in the case before the court sentence be suspended. It was true that Klemme had offered an excuse for returning to the country the fact of his wife's illness. He did not believe that to be the greater reason. This he thought could be found in the fact as stated by Klemme, namely, that he had returned to the country under a misapprehension, believing that those who had been sent away would be allowed to return. Undoubtedly the illness of Mrs. Klemme hastened the defendant's return to the country.

Acting on the plea of the defense, Judge Wilcox declared sentence suspended.

Teacher and Scholars.

Professor Hosmer will meet his Sunday school class at Oahu College this evening at 7:30 o'clock. It has been the custom of the professor to bring his boys together in this pleasant manner for the purpose of making them better acquainted with each other, and in this he has succeeded admirably. The boys look forward to the pleasant time to come and think often of the occasions that have passed.

Tennis men are now discussing the tournament to take place here in Maui. The determination to put on the best playing that has ever been given in Honolulu seems firmly fixed.

YVETTE GUILBERT, FRENCH CHANTEUSE.

Mlle. Yvette Guilbert, who is now in America, is probably the best paid vaudeville artist in the world. It is alleged that she receives $4,000 a week for her American performances. She has been the rage in Paris and London and will probably add to her triumphs on this side of the Atlantic.
